

USMB Gathering 2020 – Session 1 (chat text)

Don Morris: Join us for the next session tomorrow at 11am CDT. Jon Wiebe will be sharing about “Increasing Our Impact Through Generosity.” Use this same Zoom link.

Don Morris: Feel free to ask your questions of Boris via this Chat feature. I will then ask Boris those questions if we have time.

Ed Boschman: Loving the underlying assumptions about the church needing to exegete and penetrate the community by establishing relationally driven partnerships.

Valerie.Rempel: impressed by the creative engagement with the community

Dennis: How have you found the churches being able to work together from different theological backgrounds?

Cecil Ramos: How do you suggest the Church engage during this time of racial tension and pain?

Rhonda Dueck: Thank you! Great ideas!! You mentioned mentoring a few times. What curriculum do you use for training mentors?

J.L. Martin: Please share any helpful quotes from Boris on Facebook, Twitter or Instagram using the hashtag #USMB2020

Cecil Ramos: Thank you so much. Great point of us listening, and allowing our brothers and sisters of color to lead and shepherd us during this time. Thanks Boris.

USMB: And all convention sessions will be recorded and posted on the USMB website.

Phil Wiebe: Cross denominational network, correct? How have you kept the focus from falling into theological arguments and differences?

Rhonda Dueck: Yes! Love the collaboration. Churches who partner well across denominational lines is a huge testimony to the world in the midst of the cultural divide that is occurring in our country.
